

Do you struggle to respond in work or social situations when someone makes a racist comment or questions the reality of racism?

Participate in this vital conversation! Learn an innovative approach to using empathy, active listening, and relating skills in conversations with skeptics.

Two workshops for Anti-Racist Allies

Led by David Campt, PhD, a nationally recognized expert in race relations and civic engagement and author of The White Ally Toolkit Workbook.

Saturday April 6, 2019
First Unitarian Church
of Oakland
685 14th Street
Oakland, CA 94612

9:00 AM TO 12:00 NOON

Dismantling Racism
One Conversation at a Time

Tools for Changing Hearts and Minds Cost: $60

1:30 TO 4:30 PM:

Going Deeper

Building Skills to Become a Better Anti-racism Ally, an advanced session for those who've completed an introductory workshop Cost: $60

$100 for both sessions when registering in advance

To register, click here or go to

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/the-white-ally-toolkit-two-east-bay-workshops-for-anti-racist-allies-tickets-58879752926>

Sponsored by UU Oakland's Journey Toward Wholeness Team, Together We Will Albany Berkeley, and SMART Politics

More info at <https://www.whiteallytoolkit.com/>